NIO/Strategic Programs talked with NSC staffers about the findings of the Soviet ballistic missile defense estimate and plans to do a joint net assessment on ABM forces. He also met with BG William Doyle, the new intelligence Chief of Staff at SAC, concerning Soviet strategic capabilities.

NIO/USSR-East Europe had a session with the DDO's branch chief workshop during which a number of DO officers expressed concern about policymakers' desires to get analysis and clandestine reporting that support their policies. They thought that this problem, although endemic in the relationship between policymakers and intelligence professionals, had grown worse in recent years.

As a result of his discussions with Deputy Assistant Secretary of State Palmer and other State officers, NIO/USSR-EE is working with DI/SOVA to produce an analysis of the Soviet grain situation for the US delegation that is going to negotiate a new grain deal with the Soviets. He also attended a meeting at State on measures to keep the Polish situation before the world public.
